Q. (By Mr. Polito) Going to the last attachment, the large spreadsheet, is this an iteration of the master SAR spreadsheet that we were talking about earlier today?

MR. WILKES: Objection, form.

A. It appears to be.

Q. (By Mr. Polito) How did you create the list of system codes and descriptions?

A. The system codes are standard system codes in the JD Edwards software. It's the basis of how the software was originally designed.

What was -- what was the rest of the question?

Q. What about the description part?

A. Again, that was the definition when they designed the software.
